Annual Report for Foley Lawsuit

August 10, 2012

The Foley lawsuit is regarding former residents of the State's Training Schools who are not members of the Jackson class. The Settlement Outline (dated January 8, 2010 and approved by the Court on March 26, 2010) provides for an Annual Report for a period of 5 years regarding the circumstances of the former residents of the State's Training Schools, as follows:

- "The DD Planning Council will, within available resource, for a period of five years,
- annually gather information from all parties, to the extent that it is made available,
- regarding the circumstances of former residents of the State's Training Schools, who are not members of the Jackson class, and
- publish an annual public report which describes the circumstances of those persons.
- It is recognized and agreed that the DDPC will do no independent investigation of facts regarding the report in question,
- but merely compile information from other parties."

The DD Planning Council (DDPC) requested information from all parties. This report includes the following:

I. Reports provided by the NM Department of Health (DOH):
   - July 3, 2012 submission from DOH with Exhibits A, B, and C
   - August 1, 2012 submission from DOH as response to Plaintiff's 2nd Annual Report submission

II. Reports from Plaintiff submitted by Peter Cubra:
   - July 2, 2012 submission with 9 Attachments (Note: a revised Attachment 9 was submitted on July 6, 2012)
   - August 2, 2012 submission as response to Defendant's 2nd Annual Report submission

III. Report provided by the NM DDPC Office of Guardianship regarding referrals for court appointed guardians.

Please refer any requests for additional information to the respective parties who provided this information (see contact in each report).
