On April 29, 1980, a 7-year old boy from Phoenix, Arizona, named Chris Greicius who realized his lifelone wish to become a state trooper. Many of those responsible for fulfilling Chris' wish wanted to do the same for other children with life-threatening medical conditions. This led to the founding of the Make-A-Wish Foundation* of America. The Make-A-Wish Foundation* is now the largest wish-granting organization in the world with 74 chapters in the United States and its territories, and 28 international affiliates spanning five continents.

Agency/Program description:

Parents Reaching Out (P.R.O.) is a statewide non-profit organization that works with parents, caregivers, educators and other professionals to promote healthy, positive and caring experiences for New Mexico families and children. Founded in 1981 by families who had children with special health and developmental needs, P.R.O. has been helping parents for 20 years. In 1998, we expanded our scope of work to include all families and children. P.R.O. staff is located throughout the state and is made up of parents who represent the diverse culture and ethnic makeup of New Mexico. P.R.O. has a wide network of volunteers who are available to provide support to families within their communities. P.R.O. has the following are some of their programs: Project Abode, Project Dream Catchers, Project Petroglyphs, Families as Faculty, Family Health Information, Family Support, and Resource Library Center.

Agency/Program description:

Parents for Behaviorally Different Children is a nonprofit organization serving the state of New Mexico. PBDC was formed by families of children and adolescents with neurobiological, emotional and behavioral differences. The organization provides individual advocacy, educational materials, and trainings and seminars for families, mental health professionals and the community at large. PBDC Family Advocates support families by advocating for them in the educational, service-delivery and juvenile justice systems. The goal of the Family Advocate is to assist the family in achieving the family's desired outcomes for the success of their child and family. A Family Advocate acts as a learned partner bringing resources, options and ideas to the table.
