Executive Director Report – Alice Liu McCoy

Alice discussed end of state fiscal year and introduced new agency staff and roles: OOG Legal Director Joe Turk, DDC CFO Michelle Varela, DDC COO Donna Vigil. DDC plans to request funding from the Legislature to fully staff the agency. Alice emphasized the importance of elevating the voices of self-advocates in DDC legislative advocacy efforts.

DDC Program Updates

Daniel Ekman presented information about the spring Leadership Academy and expanding statewide inclusion.

Joe Turk discussed the rollout of the Falling Colors NM STARS data system for OOG, improving the OOG complaint process, and the Supported Decision Making Task Force. Alice discussed the NM STARS data system and the court visitor pilot project.

Michelle Tregembo presented information on the Office of the Special Education Ombud, including individual case information and ombud training efforts.

Donna Vigil discussed the status of the Marilyn Martinez State Jobs Program and announced the intern selections.

NMPED Strategic Plan & Martinez-Yazzie Discussion Draft Review – John Arango

John Arango led the discussion on the Martinez Yazzie lawsuit and NMPED's responsive documents. Katie Stone discussed the lack of clarity on how funding is specifically allocated to special education. Valentin Anaya stated that recruitment of better and diverse teachers and staff is not happening on the ground, and that equity councils are not active. Pat Osborn asked questions about supporting teachers, how the community of practice is implemented, microcredentials for educators, and how NMPED will measure progress in meaningful ways. Joel Davis discussed a lack of responsibility placed on administration and leadership in districts. Alice discussed increased interagency collaboration.
