Annual Report for Foley Lawsuit
Fourth Annual Report
August 7, 2014

The Foley lawsuit concerns former residents of the Los Lunas Training Schools who are not members of the Jackson class. A January 8, 2010 Settlement Outline was approved by the federal court on March 26, 2010. The settlement requires the compilation of an Annual Report, to be completed for a period of five years, regarding the circumstances of the former residents of the State's Training Schools. The settlement agreement states the following:

The DD Planning Council, will within available resources, for a period of up to five years, annually gather information from all parties, to the extent that it is made available regarding the circumstances of former residents of the State's Training Schools, who are not members of the Jackson Class, and publish an annual public report which describes the circumstances of the those persons.

It is recognized and agreed the DDPC will do no independent investigation of facts regarding the report in question, but merely compile information from other parties.

The Developmental Disabilities Planning Council (DDPC) was provided information by all parties. This report includes the following:

1. Plaintiffs' Submission, July 1, 2014, with Exhibits 1 to 5.
2. Defendant, Department of Health Annual Report July 1, 2014, with Attachments A to C. (Attachment A is CSI Visitation Compliance Report June 2, 2014).
